

Get Out and Get Nuts!

With Growing Native

GROWING NATIVE

Plan a Growing Native seed collection event!

Becoming a Growing Native ambassador will allow you to:

- Learn how to organize a seed collection event
- Meet other people with passion for the environment
- Play a leading role in protecting the Potomac River
- Learn to identify native trees

WWW.GROWINGNATIVE.ORG

Potomac Watershed Partnership

Join us for one of the following
AMBASSADOR TRAININGS:

Washington, DC Ambassador Training
Saturday, September 6 10am—1pm
At Watt Branch Recreation Center
6201 Banks St., NE, Washington, DC 20019

Virginia Ambassador Training
Sunday, September 7 10am—1pm
At Potomac Overlook Regional Park
2845 N. Marcey Road, Arlington, VA 22207

Tree ID Walk
Saturday, September 13 10am—11am
At the River Center at Lockhouse 8
Along the C&O Canal in Cabin John, MD

Maryland Ambassador Training
Sunday, September 14 1pm—3pm
At Pinecliff Park
8350 Pinecliff Park Road, Frederick, MD 21704

Virginia Ambassador Training
Sunday, September 21 1pm—3pm
At Long Branch Nature Center
625 South Carlin Springs Rd., Arlington, VA 22204

West Virginia Ambassador Training
TBD

Pennsylvania Ambassador Training
TBD

REGISTER TO ATTEND A TRAINING TODAY!

To register or for more information, contact Kate McNamee, Outreach Coordinator, at mcnamee@potomac.org or call 301.608.1188 x211